Programme objective

Aims are usually general and long term goals which are desired to be realized through teaching history. History aims at helping students to understand the present existing social, political, religious and economic conditions of the people.

To promote an understanding of the process of change and to acquire knowledge of significant world events. To promote an understanding of the common roots of human civilization and to develop an appreciation of the contributions made by various cultures: the cultures of different countries have contributed in one way or the other to the total heritage of mankind. History can bring this to the knowledge of the pupils and that is to be understood and appreciated.

Programme outcome

Targets achieved well within time as planned .
